Bomb Haley home

Police probing drug trial link

by GLORIA DAVIS

A report from the Antioch Police Dept. said that a pipe bomb exploded at the home of William Haley, Valley View Ct., Antioch, at 11:30 p.m., on Wednesday, June 30.

According to a police department spokesman, the bomb was placed between a screen door and a patio door on the upper level of the home.

It made a loud noise but caused damage only to the doors themselves. No one was injured as a niece of Haley's was the only occupant of the house and she was in another part of the dwelling at the time of the explosion.

The Antioch Police are investigating the incident and have been in contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the federal agency that is investigating Haley, who is awaiting trial in Florida on marijuana trafficking charges.

Haley's trial, which had been set to go in early June, has been continued because of his lawyer's inability to appear, and an early fall date is expected to be set. Haley was implicated when a plane owned by William Zeigler, Round Lake, was impounded by federal drug authorities in spring of 1981 in West Palm Beach, Fla., along with $476,000 worth of marijuana found on board.

Zeigler's plane was again impounded in Fort Meyers, Fla., in January, when traces of marijuana were found on board and Frank Marotta, 35, Lindenhurst and Allan Kennedy, 47, Antioch, were arrested and charged with firearms possession.

A spokesman for James Reilly, attorney for Zeigler, Marotta and Kennedy, said that Zeigler's plane is still in federal custody and he has received no response on his inquiries and requests for its release.

Marotta and Kennedy, who have pled not guilty to the gun possession charges, were set for trial on June 21 but that trial has also been continued because of the claim of insufficient time for case preparation submitted by Reilly.

Schemmel gets 7 years for selling cocaine

According to the Lake County States Attorney's office, Robert Schemmel, a 34-year-old electrical contractor from Antioch, received the maximum sentence for the delivery of two ounces of cocaine. Schemmel was sentenced by Judge Jack Hoogasian to seven years in prison and a $25,000 fine on Friday, July 2.

Cathy Dulaney, 24, Round Lake, Schemmel's co-defendant on charges of delivering the cocaine to an undercover Lake County Sheriff's deputy in Round Lake, on April 17, 1981, was sentenced to three years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

Hoogasian and the prosecuting attorney,

States Atty. Helen Dawes, both said that the maximum penalty was necessary to deter others from selling drugs.

Good news in The News

Change addresses

Not such good news for area residents who have not as yet changed their addresses with their correspondents.

As of July 25, the one-year deadline for addresses to be changed to the five-digit number system has expired.

Dale Thielen of the Antioch Post Office advised that after that date mail not having five-digit addresses will no longer be forwarded.

Everyone is urged to make sure to notify anyone they expect correspondence from of their five-digit address as soon as possible if they have not already done so.

Summerfest

St. Peter's Parish will have its second annual Summerfest on the school grounds, Saturday, July 24, beginning at 6 p.m.

A fun-filled evening is planned for all ages. This year's activities include an auction, vocal singers, games for adults, numerous children's games, pony rides, and dancing.

Set hearing for restaurant annexation

According to Antioch Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, there will be a public hearing at 7:30 p.m., on Thursday, July 15, at the village hall, concerning the pre-annexation agreement for the Country House owned by Bob Koester.

The annexation of the restaurant on Rte. 173, on the southwest end of the village, has already been approved by the Antioch Planning and Zoning Commissions.

Under the agreement the Country House will hook to the village sewer and water systems and use their existing well to cool the restaurant's refrigeration system.

The Antioch Village Board is in favor of the annexation because of the additional taxes the village will receive.

Retires after 33 years

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch Community High School will be bidding farewell to a familiar sight at the end of this month when Porter Larson, superintendent of maintenance and transportation, will retire after 33 years at the school.

Larson, who is married and has two sons and a travel trailer, intends to spend a lot of time in Minaqua, Wis., trying to catch the "big one" fish that is.

When he started to work at the high school there were only 250 students in comparison to the present some 1700.

When asked if the kids today were any different than they were then he said, "Kids have always been full of the devilment but times change, they never did the damage they do today."

Larson reminisces about one student named Wiggy Baton who was responsible for his spending a lot of time shoveling a ton of snow off of the school roof because one of the teachers reported a leak in her classroom.

It seems that the water was coming from a light fixture that Baton had filled with snow.

Over the years Larson has gained a deep love and respect for the school, rating the administration, teacher, custodians, bus drivers and matrons, at the top of the list.

"They are among the finest and most dedicated of any high school," he said.

But he has looked forward to his retirement and fishing sprees for a long time, so on June 30, he will pack away his hammers and his gauges and get out the old fishing pole.

Charities to give cheese

Catholic Charities will be distributing government surplus cheese once again. They still do not have the date for the arrival of the surplus cheese which is expected to be received from the government for distribution.

It is expected in June or July, and they hope to have an adequate supply, one five-pound box of cheese per family.

Those who have not registered to receive cheese, may do so by calling the nearest senior centers listed: Waukegan Senior Center, call (312) 623-6700; Zion Senior Center, call (312) 746-9796; Round Lake Senior Center, call (312) 546-0056; Lincoln Senior Center, Mundelein, call (312) 566-4790; Antioch Senior Center, call (312) 395-7120; Fox Lake Senior Center, call (312) 587-2046 and Community Senior Center, Libertyville, call (312) 362-1410.

Those who have signed up, should continue to watch for announcement of distribution dates at the senior centers, newspapers and radio stations.

Ostergaard is leader

The Antioch stock car racers have come alive again at Wilmot Speedway, on the Kenosha County Fairgrounds. Chuck Ostergaard, who was doing so well at the season's beginning, but was out of the racing headlines for a few weeks, coming back strong last week by winning the feature. This put him far out in front of the rest of the pack in points.

On Saturday, July 3, Ostergaard won the 30 lap mid-season feature race to make it a total of three feature wins for the season. He also set fast pace time of 18.40 seconds in qualifying.

John Dost of Antioch won one heat race and Roy Morrison pulled out in an early feature after having third fastest qualifying time.

Stage review

'Bell Book & Candle' bewitches reviewer

by GLORIA DAVIS

If you've ever thought that your next store neighbor or an eccentric friend was a witch, the John Van Druten play, now showing at the Country House's Dinner Theater, in Antioch, may convince you that you were possibly right.

Though the plot of "Bell Book and Candle," witch meets human, witch enchants human, witch loses human and witch and human ride off into the sunset together on her broomstick, is not a new one, Van Druten's version is one of the best.

Lyn Kessie, one of the finest local actresses, turns in a fine performance as the witch, Gillian Holroyd. She is exotically bewitching and at her best in the scene where she is confronted with her chicanery by the enchanted Shepherd Henderson.

Tim Holt, who plays Henderson, is well cast, though it may behoove Director Jones to give him a stop watch to help with his timing, since he can only be faulted when he and the dialogue are off to the races.

It took me awhile to get used to Bruce Stamm's rather swishy warlock, but by the second scene his fiendish laugh fit right into the crazy plot.

Ann Marie Cina is at her lovable best as Gillian's bumbling witch of an aunt.

If the strong cast allowed anyone to steal the show, it would be Don Crop, who is such a convincing drunk, stagger, grimmaces, slur and all, that the area was permeated with the smell of booze. At least that was what I thought until I realized it was the aroma arising from my own drink, that I was leisurely enjoying during the play, that I smelled.

If you have no plans for next weekend, try the new production at the Country House, you'll like it.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

The news received a lovely thank you-letter from Lloyd Pedersen for the publicity given to his concert that was part of Antioch's Theater Festival.

Reports are that the high school auditorium was packed and the entire audience thoroughly enjoyed the show put on by our very talented home-town boy.

I hear that some merchants are upset because of the expenditures they made in preparation for having refreshment booths at the upcoming Arts and Crafts Fair, sponsored by the Chamber.

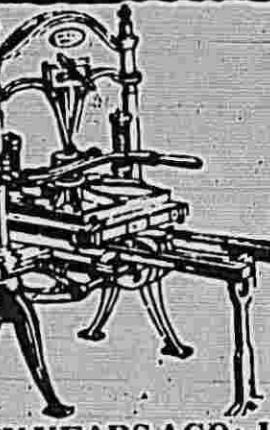

It seems that they were told that they had booths by the powers that be and, after complaints made by competitors, were informed that it was a no-go, after they had spent money and made plans for their booths.

Otherwise plans for the popular event are progressing nicely and Chairman Sue Koppa hopes that the fair on July 11, at Williams Park, will be the best one yet.

Angie Maras called to tell me to look for an eight-page feature on Hawthorn Center in the July issue of Northshore Magazine. It seems several Antioch residents are in the story.

I see where Steitz's resort has plans for its Fourth Annual Barn Dance, at 9 p.m., on July 10. A pontoon hayride, corn roast, barefoot beauty contest, costume contest, moonshine and real country cooking will all add to the festivities.

The kids in Antioch that are still looking for summer jobs can contact Sharon Maatta, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at the Waukegan Job Service Office, call (312) 662-6913 or on Tuesday and Thursday, at the Lake County Area Vocational Center, call (312) 223-6691.

Operetta to open festival Vets, fresh faces cast in 'Ah Wilderness'

Her Majesty's ship Pinafore will be sailing into Antioch manned by director Ken Smouse and his crew of stalwart actors in July 9 and will dock at the auditorium at Antioch Community High School at 8 p.m.

The ship will also appear on July 10, 16 and 17, curtain time for all performances, 8 p.m.

Keith Boehm from Antioch stars as Ralph Rackstraw, an able seaman. Boehm was seen as Frederick in last summer's production of "The Pirates of Penzance," appeared in "Grease" at Barat College this spring as well as starring as Curley in Carmel's production of "Oklahoma."

Lori Jo Rush from Antioch plays the lovely Josephine. Lori is a drama major at Illinois State University. She also was a member of the cast of "Pirates" last summer and also appeared as the French maid in "Flea In Her Ear".

Larry Bullman from Fox Lake mans the Pinafore as Captain Corcoran. He appeared as the Pirate King in "Pirates of Penzance," Dracula in PM&L's production of that classic melodrama, and has also directed and acted for Avon Players.

Director Ken Smouse of Antioch also directs the British Navy as First Lord of the Admiralty, the Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B. and is surrounded by his sisters, cousins and aunts: Ricky Apostol, Betty Smouse, Becky Montooth, Dena Fabry, Susan Butler, Kris Ann Miller, Julie Apostol, Roz Trusky, Tracy Kiederlen and especially his cousin Hebe, played by Donna Badtke from Wilmot.

Joan Kusher from Antioch plays Little Buttercup the Portsmouth Bumboat Woman who has a deep dark secret. Joan played the role of Ruth in last summer's "Pirates," is soloist at the First Church of Christ Scientist of Antioch and teaches vocal music at Barat College as well as voice and piano locally.

"H.M.S. Pinafore" is a Fool's Players' production and is part of the Antioch Theatre Festival. There is a season ticket available which includes PM&L's production of "Ah! Wilderness" which will follow Pinafore, on July 23, 24, 30, 31, August 7 and 8 at 8:30 p.m. and August 1 at 2:30 p.m. Season tickets are $5.

Tickets will be available at the door and are $3 for all seats. For reservations and ticket information call (312) 395-3055.

PM&L's contribution to this summer's Antioch Theatre Festival, "Ah! Wilderness," has been cast with fresh faces and favorite veterans. Director Tom Hausman, who directed last year's best show for PM&L ("Our Town"), has brought back three favorite veterans from that production to lead the cast in Eugene O'Neill's comedy.

Playing the father and mother, Nat and Essie Miller, are Frank Greenwood and Yvonne Dyer. Both won acting awards for their performances in "I Remember Mama".

Playing their son Richard, the hero of the play, is Anthony Starke. Starke played George Gibbs in "Our Town" and was a favorite on the Antioch High School stage.

In the major supporting roles of Aunt Lily and Uncle Sid, Dee Baum and Tom Hausman will perform. Baum's last role as the old maid school teacher in "Picnic" won her PM&L's Jackie Award. Hausman has won numerous awards for his acting at the theatre. The other three Miller children in the play will be acted by Alex Apostol as Art, Lori Koenig as Mildred (she won the best child actor award as Dagmar in "I Remember Mama"), and Keir Stahlhut as Tommy.

Dick Dyer returns to the PM&L stage as the stogey Mr. McComber and Tammy Christensen makes her first trip across Antioch boards as his daughter Muriel.

Wint Selby will be played by Steve Beno.

The fresh and lovely face of Lorraine Ferguson will play Nora, and her husband Ralph will play the Salesman in the show's hilarious barroom scene.

Dawn Champlay will play Belle. She was recently seen as Princess Allissande in PM&L's "The Giants' Dance".

Play dates are July 23, 24, 30, 31, Aug. 7 and 8, at 8:30 p.m., and Aug. 1, at 2:30 p.m., at the PM&L Theatre, at 877 Main St., in Antioch. Reservations may be made by calling (312) 395-3055.

THE DENTIST AS DETECTIVE

Q: I've read about self-examination for cancer. What should I look for in my mouth?

A: Cancer of the mouth should be among the easiest to cure, for many lesions are plainly visible while still small. Unfortunately, most people don't check their own mouths periodically. By the time the tumor is large enough to cause obvious problems, it is often too late for cure.

Cancer of the mouth can strike anyone, but most victims are men over age 50. Smoking (especially cigars or pipe), tobacco chewing, heavy drinking, and a history of syphilis are predisposing factors.

Any unexplained bleeding or lump in the mouth, any sore which lasts over a week, or any dark spots (other than normal racial pigmentation) should be checked by your dentist immediately. Dentists receive special training in detecting oral cancer, and a cancer check should be a part of every examination.

Dentists work to save teeth every day. By early diagnosis of oral cancer, they can save lives.
